Bath/Brunel/Imperial/Oxford/Reading Numerical Analysis Postgraduate Seminar Day Wednesday 25th October 2006

Brunel University
`people.brunel.ac.uk/~icsrsss/PGNADay`

Version: October 20, 2006

The next numerical analysis post-graduate seminar day will be held in Room M128 of the John Crank (mathematics) building at the Uxbridge campus of Brunel University, `www.brunel.ac.uk`, on Wednesday 25 October 2006.

There is no registration fee; tea and coffee will be provided but delegates will need to meet their own lunch costs.

In order for us to be able to plan the day we would like to know in advance how many people are coming. So, if you intend to come, please email your name to with 'PGNADay' in the subject (nothing else is needed).

`carolyn.sellers@brunel.ac.uk`

If you would like to give a twenty-five minute talk (twenty minutes plus five minutes for questions) please send a second email to

`simon.shaw@brunel.ac.uk`

as soon as possible*, with a title following by 2nd October 2006.

For the talks we will provide a whiteboard and pens, an overhead projector and an LCD projector. We are not able to provide a PC or laptop.

General information:

- The programme for the day is at

  `people.brunel.ac.uk/~icsrsss/PGNADay/prog.shtml`

  It will get populated with information as arrangements progress.

- For directions to Brunel's Uxbridge campus please consult the link `www.brunel.ac.uk/about/where`

- If you intend to bring your car on to the campus please take a look at `www.brunel.ac.uk/about/pubfac/parking`. If you would like a parking permit sent out to you in advance of your arrival please send your request to `carolyn.sellers@brunel.ac.uk`. If you park on the campus without a valid permit then there is a danger that you will get clamped and have to pay a release fee.
